Exclusive Use Policy

YMCA Camp Collins does offer an opportunity for exclusive use of camp property and facilities when scheduling allows. The interested group being the only event at camp on those particular dates of interest defines exclusive use of camp. In order to qualify for exclusive use of camp the group must either have a minimum participant attendance of 200 people (two-thirds of camp capacity) or pay for the difference between actual attendance and exclusive use minimum (200 people) in lodging and meeting space costs. No exclusive use of camp is implied unless specified on the group’s contract.
