AND INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORTS (Fair Credit Reporting Act)

This form, which you should read carefully, has been provided to you because the YMCA may request consumer reports or investigative consumer reports in connection with your application for employment, or at any time during the course of your employment with the YMCA, if any, for purposes of evaluating your suitability for employment, promotion, reassignment or retention as an employee. Additionally, in the event that claims or disputes between you and the YMCA are filed with any third parties, the YMCA may request consumer reports or investigative consumer reports for purposes of evaluation and response, regardless of whether you remain in the employ of the YMCA at the time such claims or disputes arise.

The types of reports that may be requested from consumer reporting agencies under this policy include, but are not limited to, credit reports, criminal records checks, court records checks, driving records, and/or summaries of educational and employment records and histories. The information contained in these reports may be obtained by a consumer reporting agency from public record sources or through personal interviews with your co-workers, neighbors, friends, associates, current or former employers, or other personal acquaintances. (please see summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, which is included)
